Dear Bill:

On behalf of the Southeastern Chapter, Lamar and I wish to thank you for your contribution to the Institute, making it a resounding success. We do appreciate the time and effort you devoted to preparing for group discussions and making the seminars so profitable for the registrants. We are cognizant of the fact that you contributed this time in addition to registration costs and I am sure that the registrants join us in the indebtedness to you for this service.

We look forward to seeing you again in St. Paul.

Cordially,

Betty W. Taylor
